

Cast: THE FAR SIDE

Gianna Grünig

lives and works as a dancer, choreographer and teacher (Instant Composition & Ballet) in Bern. She's creating dance pieces and hosting collaborations through her association through nature. The fields of movement and language are a focal point in her artistic work. As a teacher she loves to bring people with different backgrounds together and to share the poetics of dancing. Looking for fluidity between the daily and the magical. <https://vimeo.com/user90091675>

Bettina Neuhaus

is an Amsterdam based independent dance artist, teacher and mentor who has been working internationally in the field of performance for 3 decades. She creates dance performances and performative installations often in collaboration with dancers, musicians, visual artists and light designers. Her artistic interest centers around the poetry and narratives unfolding in the interplay between dance, live music and language revealing aspects of our human condition and interrelatedness. www.bettinaneuhaus.com

Ursula Sabatin

is an independent dance artist, choreographer, teacher and artistic director of Tanzufer center for contemporary dance and performance based in Bregenz/Austria. Her choreographic and performative work focuses on live performance and site-specific work in solo, group and collaborative work. Her special interest reflects in work with music, calligraphy, photography, video and film. www.tanzufer.at

Roberta Legros Štěpánková

is a dance artists, teacher and body-oriented psychotherapist based in Brno since 2017. She has dedicated herself to dance and body awareness work since 2009. In 2014 she started to focus precisely on improvisation and the art of instant composition. Since 2017 she has created and performed a number of dance works varying between solos and larger international dance-theatre projects. Roberta lies emphasis on interdisciplinary collaboration with musicians, light artists and visual artists in order to underline these media in the theatre work she makes. Until now she has worked artistically in Czech Republic, Slovakia, Switzerland, Spain and the Netherlands.